Department of Physics and Astronomy

Hands-On Research Opportunity

Where: Watanabe Hall 2\textsuperscript{nd} Floor Lab

When: Fall Semester 2016

What: Building a plastic scintillating fiber testing instrument and performing experiments with lasers and radiation sources

Benefits: Valuable hands on experience; resume builder; very interesting, state-of-the-art technology; hourly compensation

Requirements: Junior or above studying physics; 3.0 GPA or higher; Lab experience

Contact: Andrew Druetzler – adruetzl@hawaii.edu